

American Legion Auxiliary
National Chaplain

Rosey Newman

Rosey Newman of Garrett, Ind., is the National Chaplain of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Rosey is eligible for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary through her husband, Robert Newman, a Vietnam War veteran; and her father, Theodore Bowser, a World War II veteran.

Rosey is a member of Unit 178, Garrett, Ind., and has served in most offices and chairmanships on the Unit and District levels. She served as District President, 1979-80.

Rosey's service to her Department includes: President, 1996-1997; Vice President; Chaplain; Sergeant at Arms; Chairman of Americanism; Cavalcade of Memories; Children & Youth; Leadership; Membership; Merit; National Security; Past Presidents Parley; and VA&R.

She has also served on many committees, including the Advisory, Distinguished Guest, Finance, Girls State, VA, Hospital Representative, and Deputy committees.

On the National level Rosey's service includes: National Executive Committeewoman; Alternate NEC; Vice Chairman, Membership; National Security; Central Division Membership Chairman; Central Division Poppy Chairman; and Legislative Committee Member.

Professionally, Rosey is a realtor. She spent many years employed as a secretary; and was a church secretary for six years.

Rosey and her husband, Bob, have been married for 35 years and are the parents of two sons and grandparents of three S.A.L. and three Junior Auxiliary members.