DAY SEVEN
JULY 26

HIGHLIGHTS:

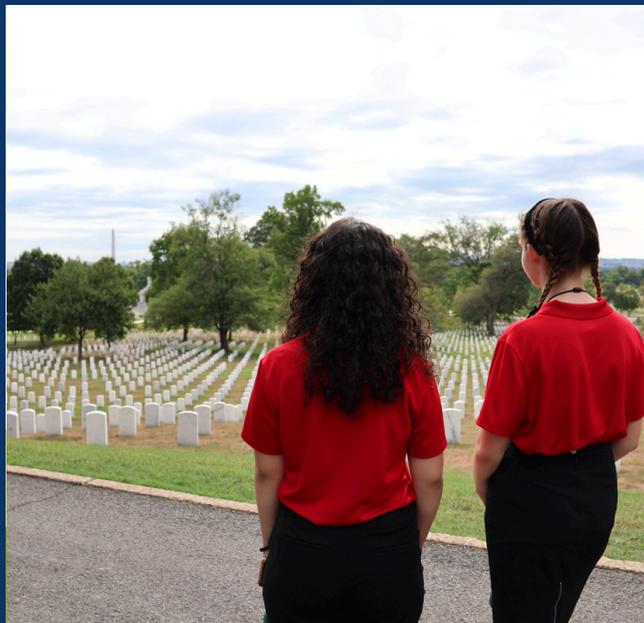

- Arlington National Cemetery
- Ceremonial Bill Signing
- Commencement
- Banquet

Paying Respects

Senators visited Arlington National Cemetery and learned more about its history.

They joined Boys Nation senators for a wreath laying at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Did you know?

The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary marked their 50th anniversary in 1969 by donating a permanent lighting system for the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington National Cemetery.

Time to celebrate

Bills were signed and commencement was held. Then the senators celebrated with a banquet. Many hugs and tearful goodbyes to their new life-long friends. Congratulations, senators, on a great week at 2024 ALA Girls Nation!
